This is a collaboration between South African artist Jaco van Schalkwyk, considered among the top 5 living artists in South Africa, and renowned photographer Riandi Appelgryn. Working together at the famous Sabi Sands wildlife area for the past two years, these acclaimed artists will unveil their efforts through a collection of beautiful paintings. This exclusive collection is weighted towards the magnificent cats the area is famous for but will also include several species of Africa's diverse wildlife population.

Native Visions Galleries will be donating 5% of art sales towards helping preserve Africa's habitat and its amazing wild inhabitants.
